Euregio Meuse-Rhine - a hotspot for career and living

The automotive industry in the Euregio Meuse-Rhine (EMR) is well known by insiders of the branch, but not so much by young professionals looking for their first jobs. The EMR hosts many automotive companies from car manufacturers and mass producers to high end researchers and developers, means the whole spectrum of the automotive branch is here.

On the other hand, many different cultures, landscapes, languages and habits are present in the EMR—something for everyone, a bit of everything.

This mix, the job opportunities and the unique living environment, makes the region to a hotspot for career and living. If you have studied here, you have felt the cultural mix. Look at the EMR as a whole, stay here, live here!
